1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: In each of claims 18, 19, and 23, line 7 of each claim, delete " , inter alia,".

The above amendments to claims 18, 19, and 23 are being made to remove an indefiniteness question regarding the use of the phrase "inter alia".

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims are allowable because the prior art of record fails to disclose or teach the claimed method step of the time period depending on a relative air conditioning performance defined as a quotient of the air conditioning performance of the air conditioning device and the temperature difference and calculating a threshold value from a link between the basic value and a learning factor representing a driver-specific manner of driving (claim 18), or the method step of starting a timer to set a start time of the time period and determining an end of the time period by comparing a current value of the timer with the threshold value with the threshold value depending on the temperature difference (claim 19), or the method step of calculating the actual temperature in the interior with a physical/mathematical temperature model of the vehicle interior with the model taking into account a plurality of variables representing an inflow and an outflow of heat energy under different operating conditions of the vehicle (claim 23).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
